

Roll & Tell

Get ready for a back-to-school adventure that's as unpredictable as it is enlightening! Grab that dice, give it a roll, and share a slice of your story that matches the magic number you land on.

What is something you are really good at?

What's your favorite memory from a previous school year?

If you were a teacher, what would you teach and how would you make your class fun?

Share a goal you have for this upcoming school year.

If you could invent a school subject, what would it be and why?

What's a book you read over the summer, and what did you like about it?
